Enclosure No. 4

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that the gold plated silver ornaments of the Tirula and Utsava murtis of Parvati of the Tirunarayanaswami temple are very old & worn out and much broken, and the gold plating has almost completely disappeared. It is stated that these ornaments were prepared during the time of the late Dewan Purnaya, and that their repairs were not undertaken since. Some of them have to be recast while others have to be repaired, and all of them re-plated. This is one of the temples periodically visited by the Royal family, and it is necessary to keep the necessary ornaments in decent condition.

2. I beg therefore to submit an Estimate for Rs 1185/ and to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government for the same. The above expenditure may be met from the savings of Rs 1361-13-4 at the credit of the temple as per detailed statement enclosed
